7. Upon the giving of the notice referred to in 6 the applicant shall thereupon become a member.

Resignation

8. Any member Society may give one calendar month's notice of its intention to resign from IARU Region 3 and at the expiration of that time unless such notice shall in the meantime have been revoked such Society shall cease to be a member of IARU Region 3.

Former Member Remain Liable

9. Any member whose membership ceases in any manner shall remain liable to IARU Region 3 for all fees, subscriptions, levies, interest and other moneys due prior to the date of such termination and shall have no interest in the assets of IARU Region 3.

Effect of Cessation of IARU Membership

10. If any member ceases to be a member of IARU of which a statement of such fact signed by the Secretary of IARU shall be final and conclusive it shall thereupon cease to be a member of IARU Region 3.

LIAISON OFFICER

Liaison Officer

11. Each member Society shall at all times be represented by a Liaison Officer whose appointment shall be notified to the Secretary in writing. Each Liaison Officer so appointed shall be a radio amateur and holding full voting privileges with the member Society represented.

Duties of Liaison Officer

12. Other than at a Conference, all views of a member Society shall be presented by its Liaison Officer and all correspondence to a member Society shall be directed to the Liaison Officer. He shall notify the Secretary of the vote of his Society on any matter submitted for the vote of member Societies.

CONFERENCE

Conference

13. The Conference shall be the supreme authority of IARU Region 3. An IARU Region 3 Conference shall be held either in person or by remote participation not less than two years and a half or not more than three years and a half after the last Conference in the country of one of the member Societies as and when a Conference so resolves or failing such resolution as decided by the Executive Committee. Each member Society shall receive at least six months' calendar notice of a Conference. Detailed guidance for the conduct of Conference is given in the General Regulations appended hereto.

Delegate to Conference

14. Each member Society shall be entitled to appoint one delegate who shall be a radio amateur and holding full voting privileges with the Society represented, and observers who may speak with the leave of their delegate, to attend Region 3 conferences each of whom will lodge with the Secretary at the commencement of the Conference by email, letter, or facsimile a letter of appointment signed by two responsible officers of the Society concerned. In addition, the Conference may admit to any Conference any person, who shall have the right to speak, if the Conference considers that the presence of that person will either assist the Conference or advance the objectives of IARU Region 3, provided however that any such person shall have no right to vote. Each member Society that has paid all its subscriptions then due shall have one vote at plenary meetings. All costs of delegates shall be borne by the member Society they represent.

Executive Committee Members not to Represent Member Society

15. No member of the Executive Committee shall act as a delegate, observer or proxy for any member society but each member of the Executive Committee shall have the right to speak at a Conference.

Conference Chair

16. At the first plenary meeting of each IARU Region 3 Conference the members represented in person or by proxy shall elect the Conference Chair.

Proxies

17A. A member Society may appoint:

(a) a delegate to a Conference, or

(b) any other person who is not a member of the Executive Committee or an observer, to vote as its proxy on its behalf during such time as it is not represented by a delegate at a Conference. The person so appointed as proxy shall be a radio amateur holding full voting privileges in a member Society.

17B. No person who is not a delegate shall exercise more than one proxy vote at a Conference.

17C. No delegate shall exercise more than one proxy vote at a Conference in addition to the vote of his own Society.

Notification of Proxy

18. An appointment of proxy shall be notified by letter or facsimile letter before the commencement of the first Plenary of a Conference signed by two responsible officers of the Society concerned addressed to the Secretary and to the person appointed. In the event a proxy is submitted late and if good cause is shown, the Conference may decide to accept the proxy.

Proceedings

19. Every resolution shall require only a simple majority to be carried. In a case of an equality of votes the motion shall be lost. The Chair if a delegate of a member shall have a deliberative vote but no casting vote.

Manner of Voting

20. Every question submitted to a Conference shall be decided by a show of hands or, if required by any delegate, by secret ballot.

Minutes

21. A declaration by the Chair that a resolution has been passed or lost and an entry to that effect in the Minute Book signed by the Chair of that or the next succeeding Conference shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded.

Disputed Votes

22. No objection shall be made to the validity of any vote except at the Conference at which the vote was tendered and every vote not disallowed at such Conference shall be deemed valid. In the case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote the Chair of the Conference shall determine the same and such determination if made in good faith shall be final and conclusive.

Subscription

23. On or before the First day of June in each year each member Society shall pay a subscription to IARU Region 3.

How Computed

24. Subscription payable by each member Society shall be fixed by the Conference. However, either the Conference or the Executive Committee may either waive the subscription of any Society or accept a lesser subscription.

Additional Payment

25. Any Society may at its option also voluntarily elect to contribute an amount more than that specified above.

Regulations

26. A Conference may from time to time make regulations not inconsistent with this Constitution dealing with any matter not covered by this Constitution. Such regulations shall be binding upon each member Society and the Executive Committee.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Executive Committee

27. Subject to a Conference, the functions, powers and management of IARU Region 3 shall be vested in a President a Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer and five Ordinary Members who shall be appointed by a Conference and who together shall be called the Executive Committee, and who shall be answerable to the Conference.

President

27A. The President, if present, shall act as Chair of all Executive Committee meetings.
27C In the absence of the President, the Vice President shall act as President.

27B. The President is responsible for the overall supervision of all Region 3 matters and shall be the official spokesperson for the Region.

Period of Office

28. The period of office of the Executive Committee shall commence on the Fifteenth day of the month following the conclusion of the Conference at which they were appointed and shall end on the Fourteenth day of the month following the conclusion of the next Conference.

Qualifications of Executive Committee Members

29. Only a member of a member Society with full voting privileges in a Society nominated by the delegation of a member Society shall be eligible to be appointed as a member of the Executive Committee and only one such person shall be appointed from any one member Society. A delegate or observer may be appointed a member of the Executive Committee.

Vacation of Executive Committee Office

30. The office of a member of the Executive Committee shall ipso facto be vacated if that person: -

- (a) resigns from office by notice in writing delivered to the Secretary, or
- (b) dies, becomes lunatic or of unsound mind or otherwise becomes incapable of carrying out their duties, or
- (c) ceases to be a member of a member Society.

Casual Vacancies

31. If a person ceases to be a member of the Executive Committee pursuant to Clause 30 then the other members of the Executive Committee may at their discretion fill that vacancy subject to Clause 29. A person so appointed to fill a vacancy shall then hold office until the Fourteenth day of the month following the conclusion of the next Conference.

Function of the Executive Committee

32. The Executive Committee shall be responsible for determining all matters of policy but shall be bound by all decisions made by a Conference. The costs of travel and accommodation of members of the Executive Committee incurred in the performance of their duties shall be borne by IARU Region 3 if so requested by the Executive Committee members incurring the same.

Quorum of Executive Committee

33. A quorum for a meeting of the Executive Committee shall be five.

Proceeding at Meetings

34. Every resolution at a meeting of the Executive Committee shall require only a simple majority though in the case of an equality of votes the motion shall be deemed to have been lost.

Time for Meeting

35. Save as otherwise provided Meetings of the Executive Committee shall be conducted either in person or by remote participation when and as they shall determine provided that one month's written notice of each meeting shall be given to each Executive Committee member.

Ballot of the Executive Committee

36. A proposal may be submitted to the Executive Committee for decision by postal or email ballot. A proposal may be originated by a member Society through its liaison officer or by an Executive Committee member. Each Executive Committee member shall by email, letter, or facsimile addressed to the Secretary vote either for or against the proposal. To be passed a resolution shall require not less than four affirmative votes.

Effect of Resolution Passed by Ballot

37. A resolution passed by ballot of the Executive Committee shall be as valid and effectual as resolution duly passed at a meeting of the Executive Committee.

Result of Ballot

38. The Secretary shall give each member Society by its Liaison Officer and each Executive Committee member notice of the result of all proposals submitted to ballot of the Executive Committee.

IARU REGION 3 OFFICERS

38 AA If the Executive Committee consider it to be useful for the advancement of the objects of IARU Region 3, it may from time to time appoint any person or groups of persons as Officers of IARU Region 3.

38 AB These IARU Region 3 Officers are responsible for assisting the Executive Committee in managing the various specialist activities in IARU Region 3.

38 AC The Executive Committee shall draw up Terms of Reference, which shall not contravene this Constitution, for these Officers and shall publish these, along with the Officers' contact details, on the IARU Region 3 website.

38 AD The appointment of Officers and their Terms of Reference are to be endorsed by the Conference.

38 AE The people appointed as Officers and their Terms of Reference may be varied by the Executive Committee from time to time and updated information shall be published on the website.

If the Executive Committee consider it to be useful for the advancement of the objects of IARU Region 3, the Executive Committee may from time to time appoint any person or groups of persons as a Correspondent or Correspondents of IARU Region 3. No Correspondent shall be appointed from any country in which there is a society that is a member of the IARU.

Rights and Duties of Correspondents

38B. A Correspondent shall be entitled to receive all information distributed to the members, and shall submit a report to each Conference.

Removal of Correspondents

38C. The office of Correspondent shall be vacated if

(a) he is removed by the Executive Committee, or

(b) a Society from the country from which the Correspondent was appointed is elected to membership in the IARU.

DISSENT

Dissent

39. A member Society may at any time give notice in writing to the Secretary that it dissents from any resolution of the Executive Committee which express or determine the policy of IARU Region 3 and such member shall thereupon cease to be bound thereby. No such dissent from a resolution shall otherwise affect the validity of the resolution.

SECRETARY

Appointment of Secretary

40. The Conference shall, with the agreement of a member Society, appoint a Secretary from that Society which shall give its support to the Secretary.

Replacement of Secretary

41. If the Secretary resigns, dies, or is removed from office by a vote of at least five of the Executive Committee members, or becomes incapable of remaining the Secretary, the Executive Committee shall appoint another Secretary nominated by his Society.

Duties of Secretary

42. The Secretary shall be responsible for the routine administration of IARU Region 3. The Secretary shall, as required by the Executive Committee, attend all meetings of the Executive Committee and all Conferences and shall keep or cause to be kept Minutes thereof and shall prepare and sign all notices and other documents required to be given or sent by IARU Region 3 and shall have such further and other powers and duties as are imposed by this Constitution or are conferred or imposed by any Conference or by the Executive Committee.

Secretariat to Assist Secretary

43. The Secretary may from time to time appoint one or more persons to assist either generally or in relation to specific matters. Together with the Secretary these persons shall constitute the Secretariat. The members of the Secretariat so appointed shall at all times be answerable to and under the direction of the Secretary.

TREASURER

43A. The Conference shall, with the agreement of a member Society, appoint a Treasurer from that Society which shall give its support to the Treasurer.

Replacement of Treasurer

43B. If the Treasurer resigns, dies, or is removed from office by a vote of at least five of the Executive Committee members, or becomes incapable of remaining the Treasurer, the Executive Committee shall appoint another Treasurer nominated by his Society.

Duties of Treasurer

43C. The Treasurer shall be responsible for the administration of all funds of IARU Region 3.

Funds

44. Expenditure shall be authorised by the Executive Committee.
